RENTAL CONTRACT and POLICIES

DECORATIONS

Any decorations on the walls or ceiling must be approved by the Parish Office.
(No hooks, stick on hooks, tacks or nails can be used) (only painters tape can be used)

Candles in centerpieces or holders are allowed, if approved by the Parish Office.

Removal of all decorations is the responsibility of the renter.

FOOD AND PREPARATION

To cook in the Center's kitchen, the contract must indicate payment of the kitchen fee. The kitchen and dining area must be clean of food waste. All trash must be placed in the dumpster outside at the south end of the east parking area. Please recycle as much as you can using the blue containers near the gym entrance doors.

Prior arrangements must be made to use dishes and cookware. All Center dishes and utensils used must be clean and put away.

Floors should be free of food and dirt. Equipment to clean the floors is provided by the Center.

The Center will provide trash bags, soap, dish towels & dish cloths. (Dish cloths & dish towels will be laundered by the center staff.)

No red, orange or grape drinks, please. We ask that you inform the staff of a potential stain that needs immediate attention. (If staff is unavailable leave a note on the kitchen counter)

All decorations as well as food, beer kegs, etc. must be removed from the Center by 11:00pm.

SET – UP AND TAKE – DOWN It is your responsibility to set up and take down more tables than are in each room. When you are finished, the room setup must be as it was found. There is a diagram for setup in each room.

Special set ups will need to be noted below. You will need to discuss setups with additional tables with parish staff.

Deliveries for events are the responsibility of the renter or set up during office business hours and confirmed with office staff. The building is always locked. Office hours are 9:00am-11:30am & 1:00pm-4:00pm

Key cards for the door must be picked up during regular office hours (Monday thru Friday 9am-4pm) the day before your event.
